Best Tourism Villages by UN Tourism

Areas of Evaluation

2024 Edition
The Best Tourism Villages by UN Tourism initiative aims to make tourism a positive force for transformation, rural development, and community wellbeing.

It seeks to advance the role of tourism in valuing and safeguarding rural villages along with their associated landscapes, knowledge systems, biological and cultural diversity, local values and activities (agriculture, forestry, livestock and/or fisheries), including their gastronomy.

The initiative will promote, in particular, innovative and transformative approaches to the development of tourism in rural destinations that contribute to the three pillars of sustainability – economic, social and environmental – in line with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

The Best Tourism Villages by UN Tourism aims to maximize the contribution of tourism to:

1. Reduce regional inequalities in income and development.
2. Fight rural depopulation.
3. Progress gender equality and women’s and youth empowerment.
4. Promote rural transformation and strengthen traction capacity.
5. Strengthen multi-level-governance, partnerships and the active involvement of communities (public-private-community collaboration)
6. Improve connectivity, infrastructure, access to finance and investment.
7. Advance innovation and digitalization.
8. Innovate in product development and value chain integration.
9. Promote the relationship between sustainable, equitable and resilient food systems and tourism to preserve biodiversity, agrobiodiversity, cultural heritage and local gastronomy.
10. Advance the conservation of natural and cultural resources.
11. Promote sustainable practices for a more efficient use of resources and a reduction of emissions and waste.
12. Enhance education and skills development.

expenditures by visitors themselves, as well as expenses that are paid for or reimbursed by others.8

Tourism product: A tourism product is a combination of tangible and intangible elements, such as natural, cultural and man-made resources, attractions, facilities, services and activities around a specific center of interest which represents the core of the destination marketing mix and creates an overall visitor experience including emotional aspects for the potential customers. A tourism product is priced and sold through distribution channels and it has a life-cycle.9

Tourism industries: Tourism industries comprise all establishments for which the principal activity is a tourism characteristic activity. Tourism industries (also referred to as tourism activities) are the activities that typically produce tourism characteristic products.10

Tourism sector: The tourism sector [...] is the cluster of production units in different industries that provide consumption goods and services demanded by visitors. Such industries are called tourism industries because visitor acquisition represents such a significant share of their supply that, in the absence of visitors, their production of these would cease to exist in meaningful quantity.11

Tourism value chain: The tourism value chain is the sequence of primary and support activities which are strategically fundamental for the performance of the tourism sector. Linked processes such as policy making and integrated planning, product development and packaging, promotion and marketing, distribution and sales and destination operations and services are the key primary activities of the tourism value chain. Support activities involve transport and infrastructure, human resource development, technology and systems development and other complementary goods and services which may not be related to core tourism businesses but have a high impact on the value of tourism.12

Tourist (or overnight visitor): A visitor [...] is classified as a tourist (or overnight visitor), if his/her trip includes an overnight stay, or as a same-day visitor (or excursionist) otherwise.13

Travel / traveller: Travel refers to the activity of travellers. A traveller is someone who moves between different geographic locations, for any purpose and any duration. The visitor is a particular type of traveller and consequently tourism is a subset of travel.14
